

SERVING TOGETHER

Join community leaders, students, faculty and food policy experts to learn about local efforts in Hunger Relief and Food Insecurity and how you can get involved!

WEDNESDAY
January 31, 2018
6:00 - 8:00 PM

TRAYES HALL
DOUGLASS STUDENT CENTER
100 GEORGE ST., NEW BRUNSWICK

REFRESHMENTS PROVIDED

This event is part of RU CARES (Community Action, Respect, Engagement, and Service) an initiative of the Rutgers Collaborative Center. RU - NB CARES offers a way for faculty and community experts to share best practices for civic engagement, promote intra-campus dialogue, and highlight successful campus-community research partnerships.

CO-SPONSORS:

- RUTGERS' DEPARTMENT OF STUDENT CENTERS AND INVOLVEMENT
- RUTGERS AGAINST HUNGER
- RUTGERS OFF-CAMPUS LIVING AND COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

RUTGERS

Collaborative Center for Community-Based Research and Service

FEATURING: REV. LISANNE FINSTON

For over 20 years, Lisanne Finston served as a leader in New Brunswick's local food and social enterprise movements. As the founding executive director of Elijah's Promise, Finston reinvented the food bank and soup kitchen by finding ways to offer healthy foods and food preparation training to clients.

DR. CARA CUITE, Associate Extension Specialist

Rutgers Cooperative Extension and Department of Human Ecology

REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE CONGRESSIONAL HUNGER CENTER

PARTNER ORGANIZATIONS:

- M.C.F.O.O.D.S.
- Meals On Wheels
- Feeding Middlesex County
- Elijah's Promise
- New Brunswick Community Food Alliance
- PRAB
- Emmanuel Lutheran Food Pantry
- Feeding New Brunswick
- Greater New Brunswick Charter School
- New Brunswick Community Farmers Market

Pre-Register At:

odi.rutgers.edu/servingtogether

To request more information, email: civic@odi.rutgers.edu engage.rutgers.edu